Approved information from saved materials

- For 4rabet, the loading state and the message Not available in your region are recorded. These are the approved states of this snapshot; regional access parameters relate to the respective launch.
- For the login/registration pages of Betclic, HTTP 403 is recorded. The login and registration forms and their functions are approved in the expert base.
- For 1xBet Riot Race, the parameters of the prize areas, the number of winners and the distribution of prizes among them are approved in the expert base. The minimum amounts in the payment method cards are tied to the respective payment routes.
- Dynamic numerical sequences are presented in the original context of the player, event or market. Structured tables provided separately are used for calculations; FUN denotes credits in demo currency.
- Graphic captions and chart points are retained in their original display; the numerical values of the tables are taken into account separately. Historical promotion counters relate to the snapshot date, and calendar end dates — to the terms of the respective promotions.
- The corpus contains approved information and states of the saved pages. Live bets, successful registrations and payouts, RNG/RTP parameters, licences and legal availability are approved in the expert base. Licence logos relate to the provider; certification documents are taken into account within their scope, tied to the product and version of Tower Rush.
